TAX LXWS.

As often as our state legislature assembles some of the would-be statesmen who are sent there seem possessed with a mission to correct the swils in our tax law, but until last year the reforms inaugurated never amounted to much —and whether this proves to be a real reform is yet to be determined. The new law we learn is being enforced in some of the conn ties, while in a there the assessors are going on in the same loose manner heretolore prevalent. The law is somewhat varue, as it leaves everything to the will and disposition of the assessor. The assessment of the State of Verment has bust been completed mader a law monthus just been completed under a law passed by the legislature last winter, and according to the report of the secretary of stan, the taxable property shows an increase of $68,000,000. This increase, says an exchange, is not due to an increase of population or the last should be a large short of the last should be a large short of the last should be a large short of the last short of wealth, but solely to the amendments to the MACADAM ROAD, BY C. It is but a question of time, and that not long, when its population will be largely increased.

Halfunda will probably within two years connect it with the older states, and then property will rise in value and large accessions will be made to the population. But that is a matter of far has interest than is generally supposed. Americans are wild in their notion that bulk is the chiof and of existence, quality rather than quantity should be sought.

I have just stood by the graves of several of the proneer missionaries in Lee Mission concertacy in salem. Oregon. A broken slab of marble partly stands and partly lies'at the head of one of the graves, bearing a half legible inscription, sacred to the memory of Cyros Shopard, originally from Weston.
